SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

Solemnity of All Saints

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Today the Church, as the liturgy states, venerates in one celebration the merits of all the Saints (Collect): not only of those whom she has canonized in the course of the centuries, but also of the numberless men and women whose holiness, hidden in this world, is only known to God and shines in his eternal kingdom.

Today's feast invites us to lift our eyes to heaven, the goal of our earthly pilgrimage. There the festive community of the saints awaits us. There we will have the company of our dear departed ones for whom we pray in tomorrow's solemn liturgical commemoration.

The faithful and families these days visit the cemeteries where the remains of their relatives lie in rest waiting for the final resurrection. The observance of All Souls' Day asks us to remember, even in a certain sense to prefer, in our prayer the souls of the dead whom no one remembers, to entrust them to the embrace of divine mercy. I am thinking particularly of those who in the last year have left the world. Above all, I pray for the victims of bloody crimes that in the past months and even these days continue to afflict humanity. The commemoration of all the faithful departed can only be a universal prayer for peace: peace for those who have lived, peace for those living and for those who will live.

We look to the Blessed Virgin Mary resplendent in glory in heaven whom Christ crowned Queen of Angels and Saints. To her, the "sign of certain hope and comfort" (Lumen gentium, n. 68), the pilgrim Church raises her eyes in the desire of being joined one day to the triumphant church in our heavenly fatherland. To the Blessed Virgin Mary we entrust all the faithful departed so that eternal happiness may be granted to them.

St John Paul II (Angelus 2002)

THE ANGELUS

As is now our custom, the Angelus is said at the beginning of the 6.00pm Mass on Saturdays and the 12noon Mass on Sundays. The text of the prayer can be found in the Parish Mass Books on page 2 (opposite the Table of Contents).

TEA & COFFEE are served in the Parish Hall after the 10.00am Mass every Sunday. Please come along, even if only for a few minutes, to meet and chat with your neighbour.

MONDAY is ALL SOULS' DAY (transferred)
Mass at 10.00am & 6.30pm (1962 Missal)

ALL SOULS' DAY – VISIT TO OUR LOCAL CEMETERIES: at the end of the morning Mass I intend to make a visit to our local cemeteries in the following order: Chigwell, Hainault and Barkingside. Parishioners will be welcome to join me and pray for the souls of those parishioners buried in each of the cemeteries.

Fr Selvini

OF YOUR CHARITY pray for the repose of the soul of Valerie (Val) Exley who died last week. The Funeral Mass is this Friday at 2.00pm followed by Interment at Chigwell cemetery. May she rest in peace and may Our Blessed Lady, Comforter of the afflicted pray for her bereaved family and friends.

NOVEMBER DEAD LIST: during the month of November there are available at the back of church special envelopes and sheets of paper on which to write the names of your departed loved ones. The envelopes (and any offering inside) can then be placed in the box in front of the altar.

THE MONTLIGEON PRAYER GROUP for the Holy Souls in Purgatory meets this Wednesday for Mass at 10.00am, followed by Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Prayers for the Holy Souls and Benediction. The meeting will end no later than 11 o'clock.

Fr Selvini

CRISIS: the weather is still mild but be sure it will not last! The tireless workers at CRISIS are already preparing for the cold when homeless people rely on CRISIS for a little cheer at Christmas - and so much more - help to get their lives sorted out so that they may achieve a degree of normality and security in their lives. We shall be having bucket collections after all Masses at the weekend 15th/16th November. May we rely on you? Justice & Peace Group.

The Holy Father's Prayer Intentions for the month of November
